Florence, May 24. N. S.

ON Sunday laſt General Zumjungen arrived here, and was immediately admitted to an Audience of the Great Duke; after having ſtaid in Town four Hours he returned to his Troops, which were encamped near Piſa, with a Deſign to march thence the next Morning. They intended to be at Maſſa as this Day; according to the Route appointed them by the Emperor, they were to be at Milan upon the twentieth of this Month; but it is thought, by reaſon of ſeveral Difficulties they are likely to meet with in their March, it will take up a longer time. On Tueſday the Seventeenth Inſtant Admiral Jennings with the Fleet under his Command arrived at Leghorn, in order to take in Proviſions for the Navy. In his way hither he informed himſelf at Vado, in what readineſs the German Troops were for their Embarking, and he intends to ſail within a few Days for that Place to take in the Foot, the Horſe being to go by another Opportunity. Immediately after that Admiral was arrived here, he diſpatch'd ſeveral Men of War to Cruize off the Iſles of Hieres, and the Channel of Malta. Mr. Moleſworth, Her Majeſty's Envoy, is gone down to Leghorn, to ſettle ſome Affairs relating to the Fleet.

Venice, May 27. N. S. They write from Rome, that on the Fourteenth Inſtant, the Cardinal de la Tremouille wrote ſeveral Letters to the Cardinal Albani and other of the Pope's chief Miniſters, concerning the Promotion of Cardinals, which the King of France deſir'd might be made: After which, in a Secret Conſiſtory, Eleven Cardinals were named, viz. the Biſhop of Olmutz for the Emperor; the Biſhop of Strasbourg for the Court of France; the Inquiſitor General of Portugal for that Kingdom; Signior Priuli, Auditor of the Rota for the Republick of Venice; Signior Piazza, who is at preſent Nuntio at Vienna; Signior Davia, who was formerly Nuntio at the Imperial Court; Signior Cuſani, who has been Nuntio in France; Signior Zandedari, heretofore Nuntio at Madrid; the Father Caſſani, a Tuſcan Capuchin, and Preacher to the Pope's Court. Father Tolomei, a Jeſuit of Tuſcany, Rector of the German College, who has undertaken to write the Continuation of Baronius's Annals; and Father Tomaſi, a Theatin of Palermo, of the Family of the Dukes of Palma. On Saturday laſt a Conſiſtory was held, wherein the Pope gave the Hats to the Cardinals Priuli, Caſſini, Tolomei and Tomaſi, and they appear'd that Day in the Chappel. There are ſeven Cardinals ſtill remaining in Petto, whoſe Names the Pope keeps Secret, and therefore neither the Queen of Poland, nor the Marquis de Prie, nor Monſieur Molinos, took notice of theſe Promotions by any Signs of Publick rejoycing which were throughout the whole City, becauſe the Cardinals for Spain and Portugal are not yet named. All the Family of the new Cardinal Priuli who are here at Venice, have had Publick Balls, Fireworks and Illuminations, for three Days and Nights together. The Earl of Peterborough went on Tueſday Night laſt for Vicenza, from whence he deſigns for Milan, and afterwards for Vienna. The Signior Sanudo has been excuſed by the Senate from going for Conſtantinople, as Bailo to this Republick, and Signior Dominico Tiepolo is appointed in his room. The Cavalier Stadella, being made Lieutenant-General of the Forces of this State, is preparing to go ſpeedily to his Command in the Levant.

Milan, May 28. N. S. By Letters from Genoa of the 21ſt of this Month we are inform'd, that Sir John Jennings, with his Squadron, was gone to take in Proviſions at Leghorn, but intended to come back to Vado before the 8th of the next Month, which is the Day appointed for the Imbarking of the Troops deſign'd to be ſent to Spain, conſiſting of Seven thouſand Recruits for the Imperial Foot, about Seven hundred Troopers diſmounted, and of Brigadier Diesbach's Regiment, making two Battalions of ſix hundred Men each. The Pope has declar'd Eleven Cardinals, and as they ſay here, has reſerv'd Eight more in Petto.

Florence, May 31. N. S. Sir John Jennings with Her Majeſty's Fleet ſailed laſt Week from Leghorn toward Vado, in order to Convoy the German Foot from thence to Catalonia.

Venice, June 3. N. S. We have Letters from Rome, which bring an Account of the Canonization of four new Saints, and that the Ceremony laſted about three Hours. The Lord Peterborough left Vicenza on Sunday laſt. The Cavalier Marini, who has reſided here for the ſpace of Twenty-two Years, with the Character of Envoy from Malta, died on Saturday Morning his Body was buried with much Pomp in the Abby of St. John, which is a Commandry of the Order of Malta in this City. Signior Spinola, who was Nuncio to the King of Poland, is returned from thence, and is gone through this Place for Rome, by the way of Padua. A Venetian Ship coming from Pago, as ſhe paſſed by Zara, a Town in Dalmatia, met a Veſſel belonging to that Port floating upon the Sea; the Maſter and four Seamen were found with their Throats cut, and all the Goods were Plundred: And it is ſuppoſed that this Fact was done by the Privateers of Dulcigno.

Utrecht, June 14. N. S. On Sunday the twelfth Inſtant the Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, in his Epiſcopal Robes, preached in the Church of St. John, and afterwards adminiſtred the Communion to as many of the Engliſh as were preſent there. Yeſterday was held as uſual a Conference amongſt the Miniſters of the Al-Allies reſiding here, and in the Evening Count Sinzendorff, one of the Plenipotentiaries on the part of his Imperial Majeſty, returned from the Hague to this Place. Mr. Harley is come back from Amſterdam, where he has been for a few Days. The Right Honourable the Lord Cornbury, who has reſided here ſince the beginning of the Congreſs, deſigns very ſuddenly to go from hence, in order to embark for Great Britain. The Count Sinzendorff diſpatch'd this Evening an Expreſs for England. We are adviſed from Switzerland, of the Surrender of Baden; and from Ratisbonne, of a Decree publiſh'd by the Emperor in the Diet there againſt the Proteſtant Cantons engaged in tha War.

Brauſſels,

Bruſſels, June 16. N. S. Here are Letters from the Camp of the Fifteenth Inſtant, but they bring no Account of the opening the Trenches before Queſnoy. The Garriſon of that Place have made a vigorous Sally with Twelve hundred Men, which were beaten back into the Town, after an obſtinate Reſiſtance. Major-General Groveſtein on the Ninth Inſtant enter'd the Province of Champaigne, with a Detachment of Eighteen hundred Horſe, in order to lay that Country under Contribution, but we have not as yet received any Account of his return. Several Imperial and Palatine Troops are expected here from the Rhine.

Utrecht, June 17. Yeſterday no Conference was held as uſual between the Miniſters of the Allies in the Town-houſe, purſuant to what they agreed on when they met laſt there. The Marquis Rinuccini, Plenipotentiary from the Great Duke of Tuſcany, who has been for ſome Days at the Hague, is return'd from thence, and the Marquis du Bourg, one of the Plenipotentiaries from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, is gone thither. The Right Honourable the Lord Cornbury receiv'd Viſits Yeſterday from many of the Miniſters, and other Perſons of diſtinction reſiding here; and this Day his Lordſhip, accompany'd out of Town by the Lord Privy Seal, went from hence in order to embark for Great Britain.

Hague, June, 17. N. S. On Wedneſday Morning, being the Fifteenth of this Inſtant, the States-General held an extraordinary Aſſembly, which continued till Night. Yeſterday Morning we had advice from the Army, that the Prince of Hanover arrived there upon the tenth of this Month. Meſſieurs Welderen and Hop, came to the Army upon the Eleventh Inſtant, and the ſame Day had a Conference with his Grace the Duke of Ormond. Upon the twelfth in the Afternoon the French made a Sally out of Queſnoy upon Two hundred Men of the Allies, and would have drove them from the Poſt which the latter had ſeized on, but the Prince of Heſſe coming to their Aſſiſtance, the Enemy were obliged to retire into the Town. Capain de Tour, of the Guards of Orange belonging to the States, was killed in this Action. Major-General Grovenſtein is marched with a Body of Fourteen thouſand Dragoons and Huſſars of Prince Eugenes Army, to penetrate into the Province of Campaign, and they have advice in the Army, that he was already got beyond the Somme and the Oiſe; and that to avoid any manner of Danger from the Detachments of the French, which nevertheleſs he did not apprehend to be within Twenty four Hours of him, he would make his return through Germany by the way of Traerback. At the ſame time the Major-General had diſpatch'd ſome Huſſars towards Paris, in hopes of a Booty. The Deputies of the States held an extraordinary Aſſembly Yeſterday, after which they ſent away an Expreſs to the Army.

Whereas a Letter dated the 3d of this Inſtant June, ſigned R. O. and directed to the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, has been receiv'd; their Lordſhips are hereby pleaſed to give Notice to the Perſon who ſent the ſaid Letter, that if he will attend them at their Office near Whitehall, he will have all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

Whereas in the Gazette of the 5th Inſtant, Notice is given by the Court of Directors of the South Sea Company, that the Subſcriptions will determine the 24th Inſtant, and the Transfer be ſhut up from the 23d Inſtant to the 11th of Auguſt next: Theſe are to give notice to all Perſons, who have receiv'd Certificates from the Commiſſioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, &c. for any Debt due from their Office before Michaelmas, 1711. that upon bringing thoſe Certificates and proper Powers (where neceſſary) to the ſaid Commiſſioners, at their Office in Prince's Court, Weſtminſter, they may receive a Transfer of ſo much South-Sea Stock, as the ſaid Certificate do reſpectively amount unto.

Whereas ſeveral Perſons Retail Wine without Licence, to the great Prejudice of Her Majeſty's Revenue, ariſing by Wine Licenſes, and to the diſcouragement of thoſe who take Licences, according to Law; all Perſons who Retail by Licence and others, are deſired to give Information to Her Majeſty's Commiſſioners for granting Wine Licences, at their Office in Eſſex-ſtreet, of all ſuch Perſons who preſume ſo to Retail Wine without Licence, and they ſhall receive all juſt Encouragement. N. B. Charles Nowell is removed from being one of the Meſſengers of the ſaid Office.
